Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE, your Majeſty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, impelled by every Sentiment of Affection and Gratitude, as well as of Duty, crave Leave to be permitted to approach your Royal Perſon, beſeeching your Majeſty that you will be pleaſed graciouſly to accept of our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, and, at the ſame Time, of our loyal and zealous Aſſurances of Affection and Attachment to your Sacred Perſon, to your Royal Conſort our Gracious Queen, (whoſe great Virtues cannot be too much admired and reſpected) and to every Branch of your Illuſtrious Family; and of our moſt exalted Veneration for your Majeſty's juſt, mild and equitable Government.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Somerſet, aſſembled at the Aſſizes at Taunton, approach your Throne to pour before it the joyful Effuſions of our Hearts on the happy Reſtoration of your Health.

It has pleaſed, Sire, the all-wiſe Diſpoſer of Events to caſt a temporary Shade over the Light of theſe Kingdoms, to evince in the moſt unequivocal Manner it's ineſtimable Value. Duly impreſſed with this Idea, and ſenſible of the Importance of your Majeſty's Life to the Proſperity of the Britiſh Empire, we are impelled by every Motive of Duty and Inclination thus publicly to declare the high Satisfaction we feel in your Majeſty's reſuming the Reins of Government unimpaired, and we preſume to think in ſome Degree preſerved inviolate by the Exertions of thoſe Miniſters whoſe Meaſures have obtained the Confidence of your Subjects, and whoſe Conduct, on that trying Occaſion, we doubt not equally meets your Royal Approbation.

May that all merciful Providence, to whom we offer the moſt fervent Tribute of Gratitude for your Majeſty's Recovery, be graciouſly pleaſed to ſhower down upon you every public and private Bleſſing, and long continue you to reign a Pattern to your Subjects in the Practice of every domeſtic Virtue, and an Example to other Monarchs in the Exerciſe of your Authority as the Father of your People.

[Delivered by Sir James Johnſtone, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for that Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

BE pleaſed, moſt gracious Sovereign, to accept the ſincere and humble Congratulations of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Manufacturers of the Pariſh of Saddleworth, on the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health.

Unuſed to a Court, we are unable to expreſs our Sentiments according to the Criterion of it's Language; but from the Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, the Wiſdom of it's Councils, and the Preſervation and Protection of your Majeſty's Reign, our Manufactures of the Staple Commodity of this Country have abundantly improved and flouriſhed.

The Idea of your Majeſty's Death could not therefore be more politically dreadful to any than to us, nor can any Apprehenſion be more painful, when we contemplate the Virtues which characterize your Majeſty in private as well as in public Life. Whoſe Example of Religion and Piety, of conjugal Affection and Fidelity, of paternal Tenderneſs and Love, has enthroned you in our Hearts, which are expanded with univerſal Joy, and filled with Gratitude and Thanks to Almighty God, who has providentially heard our Prayers, and effected an Event ſo truly valuable and important to all your Majeſty's Dominions.

May your Majeſty live long, and may your Reign be happy and proſperous; may the Bleſſings of Peace attend it, and may the Reward of it be a Crown of everlaſting Glory.

[Delivered by the Rev. Thomas Seddon, attended by Henry Duncombe, and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, have been by him preſented to the Queen: Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter, in the City of Weſtminſter.

MADAM!

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and devoted Servants, the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Weſtminſter, feel ourſelves inexpreſſibly happy in this much wiſhed-for Occaſion of congratulating tulating your Majeſty, that it hath pleaſed the Almighty to manifeſt His Mercy in withdrawing His afflicting Hand from our moſt Gracious Sovereign, and reſtoring Him to the ardent Wiſhes and Prayers of your Majeſty and His People.

To this National Bleſſing we have only to add, what all muſt devoutly wiſh, that your Majeſty's many Virtues, ſo clear and manifeſt to every diſcerning Eye, may long prove a well-imitated Pattern for the Manners of the preſent Age, and be handed down to remote Futurity by your illuſtrious and amiable Deſcendants.

Given at our Chapter at Weſtminſter, under our Common Seal, the 2d Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

J. Rocheſter, Dean of Weſtminſter.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident and Fellows of Sion College within the City of London.

MADAM!

WE, the Preſident and Fellows of Sion College, beg Leave to join in the general Voice of Congratulation on the happy Return of His Majeſty's Health, the late Intteruption of which had filled us with inexpreſſible Concern.

We adore, with Sentiments of the ſincereſt Gratitude, the Divine Providence which hath heard our united Prayers, and diſperſed the Cloud, which, while ſuſdended over the Royal Manſion, could not but diffuſe a Gloom throughout the whole Realm.

And yet, important as the Bleſſing beſtowed is to the national Proſperity, permit us, Madam, to aſſure you, that we conſider it as deriving a peculiar Value from it's intimate Connexion with the Happineſs of our amiable Queen.

We could not behold Diſtreſs invading that Boſom, which ever felt for the Sufferings of the meaneſt Subject, without the moſt powerful Sympathy.

The conjugal Tenderneſs, the unremitted Attention to the Safety of our Sovereign, diſplayed by your Majeſty during the awful Interval, demand the warmeſt Acknowledgments of a loyal Nation; While an unaffected Piety and Chriſtian Fortitude on this and every other Occaſion excite the Admiration and animate the Labours of thoſe whoſe more immediate Province it is to promote the Intereſts of Religion and Morality.

They find it their Privilege and Encouragement that, in a licentious and diſſipated Age, they can direct the Attention of their Fellow-Subjects to an illuſtrious Example of Moderation, amidſt the greateſt Confluence of earthly Felicity, of Reſignation and Patience under the ſevereſt Trials, and of every private and domeſtic Virtue.

May your Majeſty's Tranquillity continue henceforth undiſturbed, till, at the lateſt Period of human Life, you ſhall be called to exchange a periſhable for an unfading Crown!

That your Majeſty's Virtues may long continue a bright Example to the loyal and affectionate Subjects of our Sovereign is our moſt ſincere and ardent Prayer.

Signed at the unanimous Requeſt of the Society,

ROMNEY, Preſident.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident and Fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians in London.

WE, the Preſident and Fellows of the Royal College of Phyſicians in London, humbly requeſt Permiſſion to approach your Majeſty with our ſincereſt Profeſſions of Duty and Joy on the happy Return of Health to our beloved Sovereign.

Our Solicitude, during a long and painful Suſpence, was highly aggravated by our Senſe of the Anxieties and Anguiſh endured by your Majeſty, whoſe eminent and amiable Virtues, in every domeſtic Relation, were never exceeded, rarely equalled, in any Station of Life, and will become the Admiration of future Ages, as they are now an Ornament and an Example to the preſent.

Heaven, in this great Event, has ſeconded the Wiſhes of a whole Nation; and can only add to the Happineſs beſtowed on your Majeſty by giving to it a laſting Continuance.

May the Giver of all good Gifts long continue your Majeſty in the Enjoyment of all earthly Felicity, is the fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

While all the Terrors of ſuch a heavy national Calamity impreſſed the Minds of a loyal and affectionate People, they felt with redoubled Anxiety for the Diſtreſs and Concern it muſt have occaſioned, and for the Effect it might have upon the Health of the moſt excellent and beſt beloved of Queens. It is therefore with the utmoſt Gratitude that we return our moſt humble and hearty Thanks to Almighty God, for having been pleaſed to enable your Majeſty to ſupport your heavy Affliction, and to reſtore the Health of our Sovereign to the ardent Prayers of His People. And we moſt humbly beſeech Him to grant that your Majeſty may long continue to live an eminent Example of Virtue to your own Sex, the Admiration of the World, and for the Felicity of the Sovereign of a loyal, proſperous and free People.
